Violinist Jing Ye

The Kindred Spirits Orchestra

On February 18, the Kindred Spirits Orchestra under the baton of Maestro Kristian Alexander performed a sold-out concert at Markham theatre for the Performing Arts. Rossini's sparkling Overture to Cinderella's timeless story illuminated the stage for one of the most beloved cornerstones of the repertoire, Tchaikovsky's virtuosic Violin Concerto, performed to a great acclaim by Crystal Ye. Prokofiev's effervescent Symphony No. 1 and Bizet's teasing "L'amour est un oiseau rebelle", sung by soprano Ibolya Farkas, received well deserved standing ovations by the 520 guests. Mr. Frank Scarpitti, Mayor of Markham, shared his admiration for the remarkable concert while listening to live jazz music performed by Unionville Jazz combo, after the concert. The Kindred Spirits Orchestra performed to great acclaim the music of Tchaikovsky, Prokofiev, and Rossini at Markham Theatre for the Performing Arts.
